

Directions to the Health Economics Unit, Medical Campus, Observatory

From the city

From Eastern Boulevard (N2), take the Hospital exit to Main Road, Observatory. Pass the main Groote Schuur Hospital entrance and first set of traffic lights. Turn right at the second set of traffic lights into Anzio Road (landmark: Scooters restaurant at St Peter's Square shopping centre). The entrance to the UCT Health Sciences faculty is on the left just past a flyover/walkway providing foot access between UCT and the hospital on your right. Park in the paved parking area. The security staff will be able to assist you with directions to the HEU or will be able to contact us telephonically on your behalf.

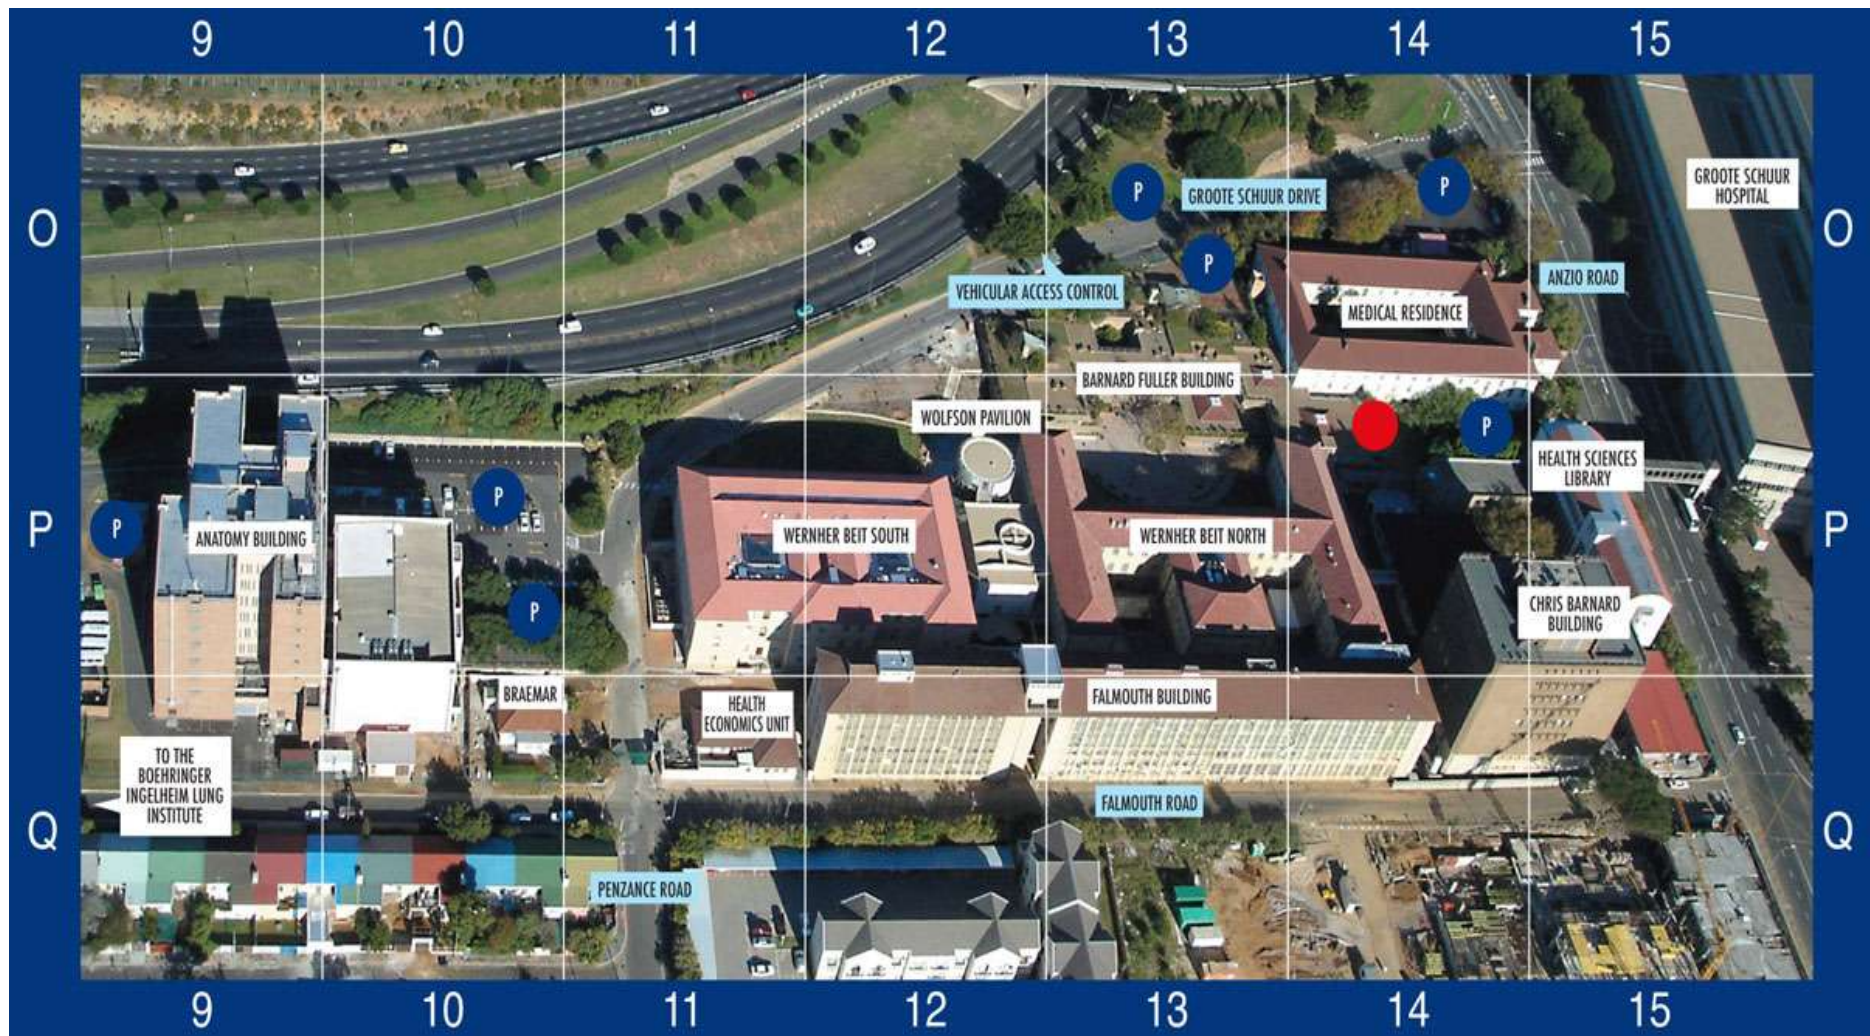

From the Northern Suburbs

From the N1, take the M5 and then the turn-off onto the N2 towards the city. Take Mowbray Main Road exit, and turn right into Main Road. Turn left at the third set of traffic lights into Anzio Road (landmark: Scooters restaurant at St Peter's Square shopping centre). The entrance to the UCT Health Sciences faculty is on the left just past a flyover/walkway providing foot access between UCT and the hospital on your right. Park in the paved parking area. The security staff will be able to assist you with directions to the HEU or will be able to contact us telephonically on your behalf.

From the Southern Suburbs

From the M3, take the Airport/Hospital (N2) exit. Continue in the direction of Groote Schuur hospital. Continue around the traffic circle and down Anzio Road. The entrance to the UCT Health Sciences faculty is on the right just before a flyover/walkway providing foot access between UCT and the hospital on your left. Park in the paved parking area. The security staff will be able to assist you with directions to the HEU or will be able to contact us telephonically on your behalf.

See the map of medical campus below to locate the HEU

HEU is situated at Q11